What's New on the Curriculum Website ?

If you have not visited the Curriculum Website recently please take a few minutes and explore all that our website has to offer curriculum.kennesaw.edu. Recently there have been a few additions to the Curriculum website that we hope will assist you in all things curriculum related. Here are a few highlights to help you navigate:

- General Education
 - o The General Education Section provides links to program Information, Initiatives and General Education Council. Videos, Learning Outcomes, Assessment, Council Meeting information, and Faculty Learning Community Information can all be found here.
- Curriculog
 - o Links to Log In to Curriculog, Access to Training, FAQs and a request form to schedule your own Training Workshops. Training Workshops are designed for 3 or more people, can be scheduled at any-time throughout the academic year, and can be board based or tailored specifically for your Department/ College/Committee's needs. Schedule your Training Workshop today!

- Curriculum Resources
 - o Find copies of past Newsletters, Archived Southern Polytechnic State University and Kennesaw State University Catalogs, Academic Program Map Resources, Dr Saundra Y McGuire's September 2017 power point presentations and other useful curriculum resources. The Board of Regents Forms and Information Section provides links to BOR forms and Guidelines directly from the USG website.
- Curriculum Committees
 - o Quick Links to UPCC and GPCC websites, and access to the Curriculum Committee Training Workshop Fall 2017 presentation materials. We hope that using these resources Department and College Curriculum Committees will find ways to improve efficiency, accuracy and integrity when reviewing curriculum proposals. We hope you find the content on our Curriculum Website to be helpful and we encourage you to use the resources provided. If you have any suggestions or concerns regarding the website please reach out to us at Curriculog@kennesaw.edu

KSU STEM Definition

After some confusion about the university's STEM programs, the Offices of Academic Affairs, Institutional Research, and Strategic Communications and Marketing have set the definition of STEM courses and programs at KSU as those whose CIP codes are listed on the National Science Foundation (NSF) STEM Classification of Instructional Programs Crosswalk and/or on the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) STEM-Designated Degree Program list.

NSF STEM Classification of Instructional Programs Crosswalk: https://www.lsamp.org/help/help_stem_cip_2010.cfm

ICE STEM-Designated Degree Program List: <https://www.ice.gov/doclib/sevis/pdf/stem-list-2011.pdf>

Though KSU is guided by the NSF and ICE in determining STEM programs, KSU has many programs that advance economic development in Georgia and the nation. As such, some courses not identified by the KSU STEM definition may be eligible for adjusted GPA calculation in accordance with Georgia House Bill 801 (<http://www.legis.ga.gov/Legislation/en-US/display/20152016/HB/801>).

If you have any questions about these or other STEM-related issues, please contact a member of our team
