

General Education Council Special Meeting
October 8, 2014
University College, Room 202

Members Present: Margaret Baldwin (COTA: Theatre and Performance Studies); Beth Daniell (CHSS: English); Tom Doleys (CHSS: Political Science); Edward Eanes (COTA: Music); Amy Howton (HHS: Health and Physical Education); Brandon Lundy (CHSS; Anthropology); Michael Patrono (Coles: Economics); Jan Phillips (CHSS: Communication); Tyler Pede (FYTS); Masako Racel (CHSS; History); Barbara Salyer (BCOE: Secondary and Middle Grades); Gail Scott (CHSS: Psychology); Kristen Seaman (COTA: Art and Design); Cristina Stephens (CHSS; Sociology and Criminal Justice); Bruce Thomas (CSM: Mathematics); Val Whittlesey (Office of Provost).

Ex-Officio: Valerie Whittlesey and Jamie Grimes (Provost's Office).

Visitors Present: Chien-Pin Li (CHSS); David Parker (History Dept.).

I. Next Core Consolidation Reviews Meetings

There will be two more meetings to review core consolidation proposals: 1) Wednesday, Oct. 15, at 3:30 – 5:00 and 2) Monday, Oct. 20, at 3:30 – 5:00 (if needed).

Both meetings will occur at University College, room 202. We will review all proposals that we receive by Oct. 13 at the Oct. 15 meeting. We hope that we get all of the proposals we are to review by Oct. 13. If so, we will not need to meet on Oct. 20.

II. Discussion and Voting on 18 Core Consolidation Curriculum Proposals

Val thanked everyone for reviewing, providing comments, and voting on 18 proposals prior to the meeting.

HIST 1111 and 1112- Val indicated that she thinks all issues and comments regarding the titles for these courses was addressed by Alice Pate's email. Members of the GEC indicated that the issues were resolved.

Val indicated that all comments about other proposals were minor.

Tom asked if everyone was okay with Val approving all 18 proposals on behalf of the GEC. Everyone indicated yes. Val asked if we can forgo a second review of the 18 proposals, and everyone said yes.

There was a motion and second to approval all 18 proposals and a unanimous vote of yes.

The meeting was adjourned.

Next Meeting- Weds., Oct. 15, 3:30 – 5:00, University College, Room 202